Canyon Water System Given To The City

Making the city of Sierra Madre a present of property valued at about $15,000, Charles S. Mann turned over to the city trustees deeds to the Sierra Madre canyon water system and all appurtenant property at last night's regular meeting.

This terminates a long series of negotiations between Mr. Mann, the city authorities and canyon property owners. It means the latter now have assurance of adequate water service. This would have been impossible with the system in its present condition. To have provided adequate service would have meant an expense to Mr. Mann of perhaps $8,000. Mr. Mann is now relieved of this responsibility. Just what it will cost the city to give the canyon residents good service remains to be determined.

Swimming Pool Included.

Included in the property deeded to the city by Mr. Mann are two wells and pumping equipment, the water distributing system, the swimming pool, a wooden tank, a concrete reservoir, and eight lots in the upper part of the little branch canyon which may sometime be used for a reservoir site. The city also acquires Mr. Mann's interest in contracts with C. E. House for the operation of the swimming pool, and with H. O. Vogel for irrigating water, which is available when the pool is drained.

The transfer will be effective as of May 1. Mr. Mann will collect water revenues up to that time, and the city will receive the revenue afterward.

Mayor Mitchell expressed to Mr. Mann, who was present with his attorney, Mr. Mansur, the appreciation felt by the trustees for his attitude throughout the negotiations and his willingness to make whatever arrangements would best serve the water requirements of the residents of the canyon district. Mr. Mann replied by expressing his hearty appreciation of the treatment accorded him by the city officials.

The trustees have been greatly assisted in the matter by City Attorney Baker and Engineer Mackerras who conducted the negotiations in large part.

Resignation Accepted.

Efforts to persuade City Engineer J. D. Mackerras to reconsider his resignation which had been previously filed with Mayor Mitchell were unavailing last night. Mr. Mackerras explained that he had made a new business connection which would require his attention the last of this month and in the meantime he wished to take a much needed rest. He expressed the pleasure derived from association with the trustees in working out the problems of the engineer's department and prophesied even greater development for the near future than the city has witnessed in the years just past.

Municipal Board Will Have Two New Members

Vote cast for trustees at city election on Monday:

Four-Year Term.

Walter W. Alley	195
Robert Mitchell	254
James D. Sparks	233
Earl D. Topping	237
Tasker M. Webster	225

Two-Year Term.

Sylvester M. Karicofe	288
Louis Karpf	175
William D. Richards	251

An unexpectedly heavy vote was cast at the city election on Monday. Active campaigning aroused considerable interest in what promised at first to be a very quiet affair.

As the steady stream of voters rolled up the total all through the day it became evident that a close contest was being staged. The counting was therefore watched with interest by a large crowd.

It became evident comparatively early that Messrs. Mitchell, Karicofe and Richards would win out. But the issue was in doubt almost to the last between Messrs. Sparks, Topping and Webster who finished very close together in the count.

DIRECTORS HOLD BUSY SESSION

Chamber of Commerce Activities Is Making Progress in Many Directions.

A spirit of optimism over the future of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce was very much in evidence at the meeting of the board of directors last night. The chamber is moving to its new quarters in the new Kersting block today where there will be ample room for committee meetings and rest room facilities will be provided.

Several committee reports were made to the board which showed progress in a great many directions.

H. E. Allen, chairman, reported for the Pasadena Road Committee. The Lighting Committee reported that the money for both the Baldwin avenue and the Central avenue projects is being placed in the bank by the property holders and that the work will probably begin in the near future.

The board voted to hold the business men's bi-weekly luncheons in the Venture Inn, owing to the convenient location and because the Women's Club was providing the luncheons only as a favor at about actual cost.

The lighting of the road to the canyon was discussed by the directors and a committee will be appointed soon to put lights from Mountain Trail avenue to the canyon.

VAN VLECK-ASKEW

The marriage of Miss Helen J. VanVleck and Charles E. Askew Jr., took place on Wednesday at the Askew home, 115 N. Baldwin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. Thompson of the Congregational church. Only a few friends were present by reason of the illness of the groom's father, C. E. Askew Sr. Miss Helen Phelan of Chicago acted as bridesmaid and George Steneck of New York was best man. The bride is a charming young woman, formerly of Clinton, Ia. The groom is one of the enterprising younger businessmen of Sierra Madre, being one of the proprietors of the Sierra Madre Transfer Company. After the ceremony a delightful dinner was served and the happy couple departed for honeymoon trip to Catalina.

Forms Important Bank Connection

J. D. Mackerras Resigns From City Position to Undertake New Work.

In order to undertake new and important work as consulting engineer, J. D. Mackerras has resigned as city engineer of Sierra Madre. He will have an office in Pasadena in the near future.

Mr. Mackerras already has made an affiliation with the First National Bank and First Trust and Savings Bank of Pasadena by which he has been retained as an appraiser. Such work for these large institutions is of great importance and constitutes a splendid recognition of the professional standing of Mr. Mackerras.

After graduating from the engineering department of McGill University, Mr. Mackerras was connected with the big hydro-electrical installation work at Niagara Falls, and with other work of magnitude. Since coming to California and recovering his health a few years ago he has been a director of the Santa Monica Bay Telephone Company, and connected with other important interests. He will continue to reside in Sierra Madre.

LODGE TO CONFER THE THIRD DEGREE

Work in the third degree will be the order of business at the meeting of Sierra Madre Lodge No. 408, F. & A. M., next Tuesday night. On the evening of Tuesday, the 25th, the annual "Stunt Night" will take place. On this occasion each one present is expected to perform some stunt of his own selection. Failing in that some stunt is named which he is expected to perform at once or pay a forfeit. These events provide an immense amount of fun and the most hilarious good time of the year.

MT. WILSON TAVERN IN NEW HANDS

Mrs. K. Avant of Pasadena has purchased the Mt. Wilson Tavern at the end of the car line from Mr. and Mrs. Otto Seng, who have gone to Los Angeles. A. M. Staab is in active charge of the place. Mr. Staab has had many years of experience with the L. J. Christopher stores in Los Angeles.

JEWELRY STORE IS IN NEW HOME

Messrs. Tucker and Fraiberg Move To New Quarters on South Side of Street.

L. C. Tucker's beautiful window display in the new jewelry store has been attracting a lot of attention this week. He moved across the street Monday and has been busy all week getting settled in the commodious new room.

Added to the jewelry stock is a new feature in some paintings, place cards and other things from the brush of Mr. Tucker's sister, Miss Eleanor Tucker. Under the guidance of Mr. Fraiberg, Mr. Tucker is developing his store into a first class establishment which will be a credit to Sierra Madre.

New Charging System in Use

Books to Be Circulated From Library Under Improved Method.

Library patrons will be interested to learn of the new system of registration of borrowers and charging of books in circulation which was authorized at the last meeting of the library board. The system will be started within a few days and is explained by Miss Rogers, the librarian, as follows:

Each library patron will have a card bearing a number. The system requires the presentation of the card each time a book is withdrawn from the library. The patron's number will be entered on the book card which is retained at the library. Under the old system the name was entered, requiring the writing of the name as many times as the number of books taken. The new system facilitates the charging of books and the giving of quicker service. It also safeguards the public.

Under library rules four books may be drawn at one time.

Two of the books may be fiction and two non-fiction.

Only one seven-day book may be drawn on a card at a time.

A fine of 2 cents a day will be charged on all over-due books (not counting holidays.)

Speaking of the new system, Miss Rogers says:

"I hope everyone who uses the library will like this new system, as it is for their benefit I am working. I will be glad to explain any point that may not be understood and to accept any practical suggestions that would help make the library of more service to the public.

"I am trying to make the library more cheerful and homey inside by the use of flowers. At present the lack of vases presents a difficulty. Accordingly the gift of vases, flowers or plants for the library will be appreciated. This is your library and I want to make it like a home for you."

MUSIC FOR EASTER AT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The following musical numbers will be given at the 11 o'clock service at the Church of the Ascension on Easter Sunday, with Miss Frances Webster at the organ:

Mrs. Anita Baldwin has contributed $2,500 toward the erection of a new building for the Community Presbyterian church at Arcadia, saying she was glad to aid an institution which was doing so much good work among the young people of Arcadia.

Cogswell Views Proposed Road

West Central Avenue Extension Meets With Approval of County Supervisor.

Prescott F. Cogswell, county supervisor representing this district, and George Jones, county road commissioner, visited Sierra Madre last Friday. They came to look over the plans and route of the proposed new highway extending from Central avenue west of the city limits of Sierra Madre paralleling the Pacific Electric and then connecting with Orange Grove avenue in East Pasadena.

The visitors were met by the Chamber of Commerce committee, Messrs. Andrews, Allen and Mitchell and Secretary DeWitt Jones, who accompanied them over the proposed route.

Mr. Cogswell expressed himself as satisfied that the engineering problems involved in the proposed route need not stand in the way of carrying the project through. The principal problem to be solved is that of the right of way, and the longest single trips have already been promised free.

BUMPS ARE IRONED OUT

Bumping the bumps is no longer the regular form of introduction to Sierra Madre streets for motorists coming to town by way of Baldwin avenue. Judicious application of the scarifier, scraper and street roller by Messrs. Hoover and Trejo, has ironed the road out smooth at the intersection of Baldwin and Live Oak. Street superintendent Udell has the thanks of the motoring public and of the neighbors who were kept awake by the clatter of flippers which hit the bumps unawares.

PETTITT'S STORE IS EXPANDING

New Soda Fountain Makes Larger Quarters Necessary for Business.

To care for the summer soda and ice cream business, A. E. Pettitt has enlarged his store and will put in a complete new fountain equipment. He has knocked out the partition and will occupy the old quarters and larger room which was formerly used by the jewelry store. The new arrangement will provide booths 'everything to make cool summer drinks enjoyable. Say what you will about the weather, summer is coming when cool drinks will be welcome.

Mr. Pettitt's little store has always been about the busiest little place in town. The new arrangement will give him the space he has been seeking for a long time.

John Lowe, who has been a resident of Cypress Court for some time, is erecting a charming bungalow on a large lot at the turn of East Carter avenue. Ground has been broken on an adjoining lot for a bungalow to be erected by Dr. Boyd, a medical missionary who has returned to this country after a number of years of service in the south of China. A daughter of Mr. Lowe has been stationed near Dr. and Mrs. Boyd in the mission field.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mollenkopf of Santa Barbara visited Sierra Madre friends Thursday.

Dr. Blaisdell Here Thursday

President of Pomona College Will Be Speaker Before Men's Club Meeting.

Dr. James A. Blaisdell, president of Pomona College, will be the speaker at the monthly meeting of the Men's Community Club in the Congregational church next Thursday evening at 7:30. This assures one of the best talks among the many splendid ones presented before the club meetings.

With a vision of the San Gabriel Valley densely populated from the mountains to the sea and from Pasadena to Redlands, Dr. Blaisdell looks ahead to the educational needs of such a community. In the decade of his service at Pomona, Dr. Blaisdell has put the institution into the very front rank of American colleges. He seems to see future educational methods with a prophetic vision. His subject will be "Higher Education and the San Gabriel Valley," and it promises to be intensely interesting to all.

The usual dinner will be served at 6:30. It will be served promptly so that the hour of the open meeting when Dr. Blaisdell speaks can be advanced to 7:30 o'clock.

VENTURE INN IS POPULAR PLACE

New Tea Room Provides Service Which Has Been Greatly Needed.

Opening of the new tea room under the name of "Venture Inn," was hailed with delight by a large number of patrons Monday night. The general verdict was that it is no venture to go there expecting delicious food delightfully served. It is such a sure thing that the Venture Inn should not have to be regarded as a business venture at all but should have a steady patronage which will make it a certain success.

Mr. and Mrs. Linscott received the hearty congratulations of their many friends upon the attractive arrangement of their tea room. Furnishings, table appointments, illumination and decorations are thoroughly pleasing. The impression given is that of quiet and restfulness, but with enough color to give life and spirit to the atmosphere.

A number of organizations and small groups are expected to make the tea room headquarters for their mealtime meetings, for which the central location is most convenient.

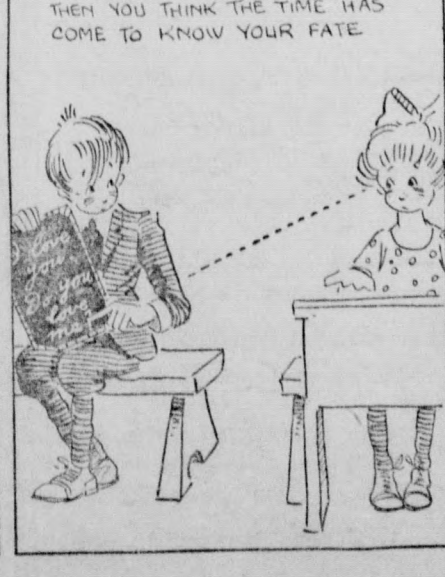

SUMMONS FOR MRS. POLLEY

Mrs. Angeline Robley Polley passed away on Palm Sunday in Los Angeles, at the age of 77 years. She was a native of Illinois but had resided in Sierra Madre for the past seventeen years, bearing the love and respect of all who knew her.

Mrs. Polley is survived by a daughter, Miss Angeline Polley, and two sons, Clarence and Earl Polley. She also leaves two sisters in Sierra Madre, Mrs. L. E. Lyon and Miss Hattie Marvin.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday at the Church of the Ascension, Dean William Carson Shaw officiating. The interment was at San Gabriel cemetery.

The Modern Priscillas will meet next Thursday, April 20, at the home of Mrs. Frank J. Hart of Sierra Madre Villa.

Perry Cover who has been ill at San Diego the past ten days is expected to be able to return home this week.

Mrs. Frank E. Barbour and daughter Virginia went to South Santa Anita Thursday, the latter remaining for a visit of several days with friends.

Mrs. R. C. Ferguson and son, John Ferguson, are making a short auto tour of the northern part of the state. They included a visit to another son, Kirby Ferguson at Colusa, and expect to return on Sunday.

Ferris & Cooper recently sold the W. E. Phillips place at 130 Suffolk to George E. Dell, who will make his home there. Mr. Dell is a resident partner in the firm of Arthur Young & Co., of New York, accountants with offices in the Pacific Finance Building, Los Angeles.

Among recent realty transfers arranged by the firm of Ferris & Cooper is the purchase of the H. J. Parham property at 484 Mariposa by J. Morrison Campbell. Mr. Campbell is president of the General Brokerage Company of Los Angeles and is the son of Rev. Dr. J. M. Campbell, formerly pastor of the Congregational church. He expects to make the place his home.

The Rev. and Mrs. Van Horne were the special speakers at the missionary meeting held in the Congregational Church on Tuesday afternoon. They told a fascinating story of their life work in Japan and paid high tribute to the Japanese who became Christians. Incidentally they revealed the wonderful persistence, splendid courage and Christian character of the American missionary abroad. It was a real inspiration to hear this noble couple.

M. A. Hawkes of Hermosa avenue has just received a New York paper containing the portrait of his granddaughter, Miss Louise R. Hawkes, a student at Vassar. Miss Hawkes has been selected as one of the sophomores to carry the daisy chain in Vassar's big commencement event. She is the daughter of A. W. Hawkes, vice president of the General Chemical Company of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Justus Krafft left Monday for a six months' trip to Europe. They expect to visit England, France and Germany. Mr. Krafft's aged mother is still living in Germany and the visit to her is the principal objective of the trip. This will be the first vacation Mr. Krafft has taken in a great many years. As secretary of the Haas-Baruch Company of Los Angeles, he has put in several strenuous years, especially during the war period and the building of the great modern plant which now houses the concern. The trip will give him an opportunity for a rest to which he is well entitled.

Lieut. Jack Norwood is still confined to his bed in the hospital at Vancouver, after a seven months' siege. His old wound is healing very slowly but Jack writes optimistically that he is still looking forward to the time when he can return to Sierra Madre.

As you go along the street, don't fail to notice the nifty window displays from week to week at the Hartman drug store. They are always timely as well as easy to look at. The talent responsible for the pleasing work is that of Miss Agnes Kittleson who says she hasn't any talent. If that is the case she gets amazingly good results for one so deficient.

Woodson Jones has secured the agency for the famous Martha Washington candies and will keep a fresh supply on hand all the time. They are high class chocolates and bon bons packed in plain or attractive boxes, and sold at a very moderate price. Woodson says he is also thinking of adding several other lines to his stock which will supply articles heretofore much needed in Sierra Madre's business district.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henderson entertained about fifty guests at their home Saturday evening with a most enjoyable dancing party. The feature which afforded greatest enjoyment was the old fashioned square dances. To the younger guests who knew nothing but the modern steps, these good old dances were a revelation in their good time possibilities. The guests included a number of recent arrivals from a portion of the south where these dances are still used with great proficiency, and their skill was a matter of great admiration. Among those present were visitors from Pasadena, Burbank and Los Angeles.

WOMAN'S CLUB NEWS

By Press Chairman, Mrs. Besse Palmer Rhodes.

Regular Meeting and Luncheon.

Another of the successful monthly luncheons, for which 110 reservations were made, was served on Monday at the club house. Mrs. William Baurhyte, who was to have been the luncheon speaker was unable to appear on account of illness and sent in her place Mrs. von Voldenberg, who gave a most interesting talk on the "Maternity Cottage." This is one of the club's favorite philanthropies.

It might interest some who were not present to know that while a new $30,000 cottage has been built, with accommodation of sixteen beds, the hospital is still too small and applicants are turned away daily. Since the establishment of this institution 3,500 babies have been born and the preference is now being given to expectant mothers among the wives of ex-service men. A very nominal fee is charged, thereby affording the poor mother good attention, which would otherwise be impossible.

Mrs. von Voldenberg extended an invitation to the club members to set a special day on which to visit the institution.

A few kindly words of greeting were offered by Mrs. J. C. Seymour, president of the Women's Club of Monrovia.

In order to give ample time for the reports of the recent district convention at Santa Monica, the afternoon session was called earlier than usual. Interesting reports were given by the president, Mrs. Steinberger and the following delegates, Mrs. W. S. Andrews, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. W. J. Lawless, Mrs. M. D. Welsher and Mrs. E. H. Carpenter. The "high lights" of the convention were commented upon by the press chairman, Mrs. Palmer Rhodes.

Mrs. C. J. Beers, Mrs. H. T. Bassett and Mrs. W. E. Walker were appointed to serve as a nominating committee for the coming election. The following ladies were chosen as delegates to the state convention to be held in Los Angeles in May: Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, Mrs. W. J. Lawless and Mrs. Frank Wright. Alternates are Mrs. H. E. Allen, Mrs. Frank Hart and Mrs. E. H. Carpenter.

The president reported that the Sierra Madre Woman's club would have the honor of acting as hostess club to the state and district officers at a picnic luncheon to be held at Sycamore Grove during the convention and appointed committees for furthering necessary plans.

Following the transaction of an unusual amount of business, a wonderful hour of recreation was enjoyed, while Arthur Kachel gave his splendid dramatic interpretation of "The Music Master." With the understanding of the true artist, Mr. Kachel seemed to live the part of the dear old music master, and his moments of deepest pathos followed closely by those of chivalric humor, brought tears and laughter in quick succession.

Under the direction of Mrs. Roland Adams, the club house was beautifully decorated with flowers in the club colors, blue and gold. A large bouquet of these was sent with Mrs. von Voldenberg, to the maternity cottage.

The Club's "At Home."

A goodly party of club members and their escorts responded to the club's "at home" invitation for Thursday evening, the 6th, and spent a delightful evening with cards and dancing. Numerous bouquets and potted plants made the club rooms more than ever attractive and good music throughout the evening was an added charm. The prize for the high score in bridge went to Mrs. Anna W. Harris and the consolation to H. T. Bassett. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Walker received first prizes in 500 and Mrs. Victor Hill and W. R. Lees the consolation. Delicious refreshments were served in the late evening. Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Harry Bourne, Mrs. W.

J. Miller, Mrs. Pauline Lockwood, Miss Stella Dennison and Mrs. J. Appleby acted as hostesses.

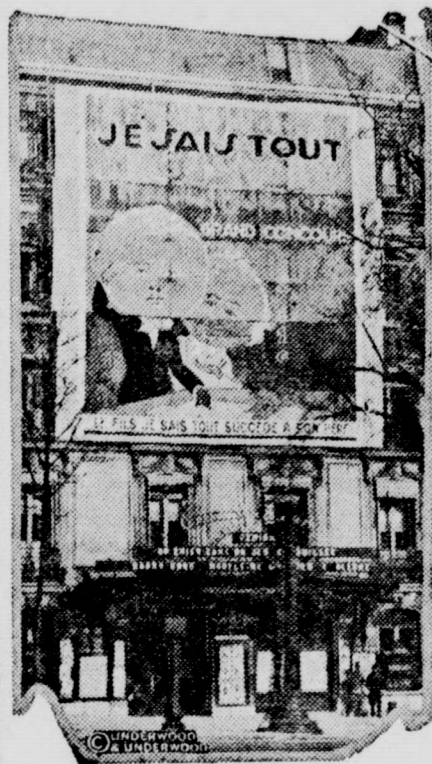

Drama Section.

This interesting section of the club met on Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of the president, Mrs. Steinberger. Three scenes from Shakespeare were read by various members, in honor of the author's birthday, and one from Moliere, in honor of his tenth centenary. At the close of the business session, a social time was enjoyed over the tea cups.

Westeria Tea Postponed.

On account of cold weather retarding the blooming of the wisteria vine, the "Wisteria Tea" announced at the last meeting of the club for next Monday, will necessarily be postponed. Further notice will be given when the big vine is advanced sufficiently to warrant the holding of the tea as planned.

PARIS OBJECTS TO THIS

This sort of thing—right on the Champs Elysees, although it looks more like Broadway—has driven public-spirited Parisians recently to strong protest and a move is on foot to pass laws prohibiting such flamboyant signs in the residence districts of "the world's capital."

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE
XXXIV.—KANSAS

WAY back in 1541 Coronado, the Spanish explorer, is reported to have penetrated to Kansas in search of a mythical wealthy Indian tribe. It was not again visited, however, by white men until nearly one hundred and seventy-five years later, when the French in Louisiana sent out an expedition to investigate the remote portions of what was then their territory. Most of the present State of Kansas was a part of the Louisiana Purchase and so passed from French hands to the United States in 1803. A small additional part was later added in 1850, being ceded by Texas.

The Lewis and Clark party traversed this region in 1804, and Lieutenant Pike passed through Kansas two years later. Kansas history really becomes interesting in the middle of the century, when the slavery agitation gave it the name of "Bleeding Kansas." It had been an unorganized territory since 1821, at which time it had been considered a portion of the Territory of Missouri. According to the Missouri Compromise, if Kansas became a state it could not be a slavery state. The opposition of the South was so strong the Kansas-Nebraska bill was passed in 1854, making this vital question optional with the inhabitants in each proposed state. With this law in force, the two factions actively started colonizing Kansas. Immigrants from the slave states of Arkansas and Missouri immediately founded Leavenworth. The Massachusetts Emigrant Aid society sent out anti-slavery settlers, who founded Lawrence, Topeka and other towns. Conflict between these two parties broke out at once, and it was only put down by the intervention of federal troops. The Northern settlers came in such numbers that they soon were in the majority and in 1861 an anti-slavery constitution was adopted, so Kansas was admitted to the Union in that year.

The political dispute over Kansas was the cause of the formation of the present Republican party. (© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

AUTO TRAVEL BECOMES SAFER

Auto accident deaths are decreasing, when the number of autos in use is considered. In 1913 when there were not nearly so many cars in use, the number of deaths was 2.5 per thousand cars. By 1920 the number had decreased to 1.3 deaths per thousand cars. The number of cars has increased so enormously that there has been a great increase in the number of fatalities in spite of the lower ratio per thousand cars. The figures simply show that the public is becoming more accustomed to cars. They are either better drivers or better dodgers, probably both. In spite of the acts of a comparative few "wild" drivers, the great majority are becoming more expert at handling cars. Improved traffic regulations are for safety and speed as well. Cars, and more especially tires, are made better to withstand the hazards of the road and prevent many accidents. Better highways also remove a prolific cause of trouble. On the whole it may be safely assumed that people who had begun to regard the auto as the probable means of final extinction of the human race were entertaining groundless fear.

: BY THE WAY :

If the earth, 8,000 miles thick, is hot enough at the center to melt rocks, why, oh why, do we so often find baked potatoes which are not cooked in the middle?

Must be getting old! Insurance policy in the little strong box doesn't contain any provisions making it void in case the insured takes an aeroplane flight. Something the insurance men had not begun to worry about when it was issued. And it was not so long ago, at that!

"What would you do if you were in my shoes?" is a hard luck query that might often be answered "Have 'em cleaned, and pants pressed at the same time!" Good for morale, anyway.

Cutting out advertising may help to reduce expenses; and in somewhat the same manner the cost of living may be reduced by cutting your windpipe. Not original, but pointed.

In business every little wallop has a meaning all its own. But the meaning of an unfair wallop to a competitor is distinctly that of a boomerang.

Now that the city election is all settled, let's get busy with hoe and hose and keep that spring garden growing. Or else, let the wife do it while dad takes in the ball game.

Opportunity. A missed opportunity is like the sun in the heavens. At midday, when it is nearest us, we cannot perceive it sufficiently clearly; the white glare is too much for our eyes. It is only when it is passed, when it is already sinking, that it looms large, its details magnified and the whole suffused in golden splendor.

Wrote Under Death's Shadow.

The story of H. F. Lyte, the author of "Abide With Me, Fast Falls the Eventide," is unusually moving. The line, "When other helpers fail and comforts flee," is significant in an understanding of his famous hymn, for Lyte had all the helpers and comforts that a fortunate life could give. But he was found to be suffering from an incurable disease, and his helps and comforts failed him. No specialist could do anything for him, and he wrote this hymn under sentence of death.

Respect for Law Is Essential to Stability

Lawyers Declare Safety and Prosperity Depend on Respect for Law.

(By Charles H. Randall, Prohibition Congressman 1915-1921)

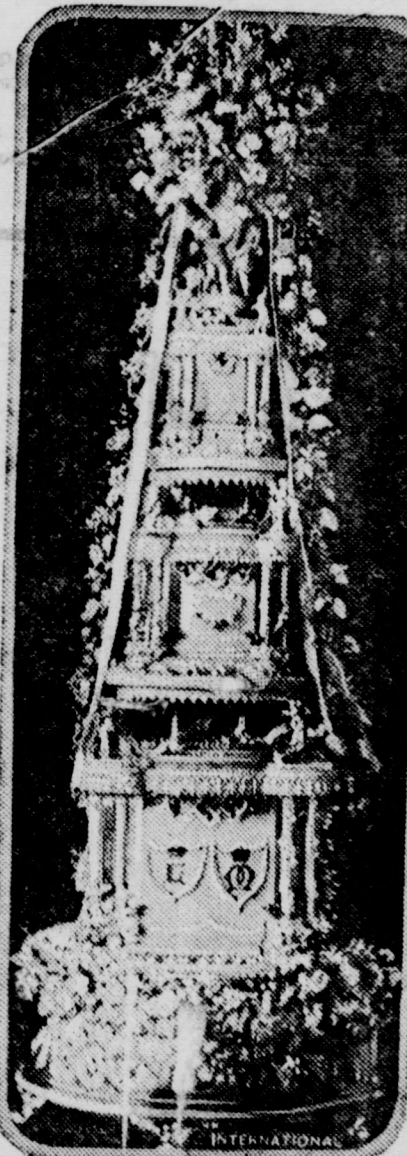

Attorney General Daugherty on August 31, 1921, speaking in Cincinnati, Ohio, said:

"Respect for law is the one essential fact of our civilization. Without it life, liberty, and property are insecure. Without it civilization falls back to chaos. If there is one fact history teaches above any other it is that the rights incident to wealth and the rights furnishing the opportunity to enjoy spiritual, intellectual, moral and social things are conditioned upon the supremacy of law. The government will endure on the rock of law enforcement or it will perish in the quicksands of lawlessness."

In similar burning words the American Bar Association, through its judicial section, on the same day made this remarkable statement:

"The judicial section of the American Bar Association venturing to speak for all the judges, wishes to express this warning to the American people: Reverence for law and enforcement of law depend mainly upon the ideals and customs of those who occupy the vantage ground of life in business and society. The people of the United States, by solemn constitutional and statutory enactment, have undertaken to suppress the age-long evil of the liquor traffic. When, for the gratification of their appetites or the promotion of their interests, lawyers, bankers, great merchants and manufacturers, and social leaders, both men and women, disobey and scoff at this law, or any other law, they are aiding the cause of anarchy and promoting mob violence, robbery, and homicide; they are sewing dragon's teeth, and they need not be surprised when the find that no judicial or police authority can save our country or humanity from reaping the harvest."

MARY'S WEDDING CAKE

One of the wedding cakes made for Princess Mary of England, elaborately designed and set on a great base. Three tiers composed the cake, on the lower tier being inscribed the initials "M" and "L"—for Mary and Lascelles—respectively.

Quebec Names.

In the province of Quebec there is much uncertainty in the spelling and the use of names. A scattered people in a huge half-wild country, unlettered for the most part and with no one to turn to for counsel . . . is apt to pay attention only to the sound of names, caring nothing about their appearance when written or the sex to which they pertain. Pronunciation has naturally varied in one month or another, in this family or that, and when a formal occasion calls for writing, each takes leave to spell his baptismal name in his own way, without a passing thought that there may be a canonical form. Borrowing from other languages has added to the uncertainties of orthography and gender. Individuals sign differently. Denise, Dénile or Deneje; Conrad or Conrade; men bear such names as Hermenegilde, Aglae, Edwige.—Louis Hemon, in "Marie Chapdelaine."

No Friend of Humanity.

Austrian Paper Money Isn't Worth Very Much

The Austro-Hungarian bank at Vienna is making weekly issues of five and ten thousand kronen paper money bills in such great quantities that the value of the kronen has again taken a drop. A hundred kronen are equal to one cent in American money. Here is a photograph of bank employees carrying seventeen and a half million kronen, paper money, to the counters of the Vienna bank. There is two and a half million in each basket.

"Golden Ball Vinegar" is the brand which the citrus growers exchange is putting on one of the principal products designed to give the growers a revenue from low grade or cull oranges. Orange vinegar has been perfected to a point where it is said to be the equal if not the superior of any other vinegar on the market. M. D. Welsher has "Golden Ball Vinegar" for sale locally, and users will not only have a good article but a product of local interest.

Red tape, colloquial English, of official formal obstruction, is a phrase which owes its origin to the red tape which at least for two centuries has been used by lawyers and public officials for tying up documents, etc.—Chicago Journal.

BABY'S SHOES

Dear little, glad little, sad little shoes;
Mired little, tired little, dear little shoes.

We'll put you away to be kissed by the years;
To be treasured and fondled, and polished with tears.
Your wearer, God willing, will some day grow tall,
And he will forget you—but I never shall,
For I'll find you some day in some packed-away place,
When I'm looking for Lavender—finding Old Lace.

Dear little, glad little, sad little shoes;
Worn little, torn little, dear little shoes.
